People's Choice & Barrister's Best:

JAY TIFTICKJIAN

TIFTICKJIAN LAW FIRM

It wasn't too long ago that a different name dominated this category, but lately all we're hearing is "Jay Tiftickjain, this" and "Jay Tiftickjian, that." He's certainly been getting his name out there with a new book, TV interviews and a series of speaking engagements, but we can't fault him for telling it like it is, and we're sure he knows his stuff. Tiftickjian has become the local expert on marijuana limits while driving, and you'll likely keep seeing him around these parts in the years to come. (We also want to acknowledge that we like his sense of humor.)
