BEST DUI LAWYER

Barrister's Best: Jay Tiftickjian, The Tiftickjian Law Firm

Being picked up for a DUI isn't the highlight of your day. That's why you want a lawyer who understands. "My clients aren't bad people," DUI attorney Jay Tiftickjian told Law Week recently. And the man knows his chromatography, too. He recently spent a week in a testing lab tinkering with equipment to better know the science behind his clients' condemnation.

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN — when Law Week's barrister takes a good look at Colorado's legal community to see who's at the top of their game. From the best legal vendors to the top attorneys in more than 30 practice areas, he's ranked them all alongside your own votes, which are represented by the people's choice listing.
